

Paul Marshall

November 22, 1916 - December 18, 2009

Graveside services for Paul Marshall, 93, of Tyler are scheduled for 10:00 AM Tuesday, December 22, 2009 at Tyler Memorial Park with Rev. Park Robertson officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mr. Marshall died Friday, December 18 at Pinecrest Nursing Home in Tyler. The family is comforted at this time of sorrow by God's Promise in II Corinthians 5:1, "For we know that if our earthly house, this physical body, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a body not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens."

Mr. Marshall was born November 22, 1916 in Bell County, Texas and grew up on a farm between Jot 'Em Down and Ladonia, Texas. He retired from Berry Cigar and Candy Company in 1981. Mr. Marshall was a long time member of Friendly Baptist Church in Tyler, where he taught the Paul's Sunday School Class before moving to the Noonday area where he was a faithful member of Noonday Baptist Church.

Paul was well known for his sense of humor and was always ready to regale anyone within earshot with a litany of tired old jokes. According to him, his greatest claim to fame was the fact that he graduated from Columbia. Of course, he was referring to the old Columbia school located between Fairlie and Commerce, Texas, that only offered grades 1-8. He was preceded in death by his parents, Horace Greely Marshall and Essie Ercanbrack Marshall, sisters, Merle Middlebrooks and Mamie Ruth Boucher; brothers, Lloyd Marshall, Raymond Marshall, and Kenneth Marshall. He is survived by Mildred Marshall, his faithful and loving wife of 71 years; son, Windel Marshall and wife Marion; granddaughters, Winda Marshall of McKinney, Mande Young and husband Tim of Frisco, and Misty Miller and husband Mark of Frisco; great-grandchildren Chloe and Caden Young and Evan Miller, all of Frisco. The family will receive friends on Monday, December 21, 2009 from 6:00-8:00 PM at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, in Tyler.
