

Pavlo "Pasha" Leonidovich Zapolsky

July 20, 1997 - March 4, 2015

Services for Pavlo "Pasha" Zapolsky, 17, of Bullard, will be held on Wednesday, March 11, 2015, at 10:00 AM at Flint Baptist Church with Rev. Sam Deville and Rev. Brian Hawkins officiating.

Private burial will follow at Roselawn Park Cemetery in Palestine under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Pasha passed away Wednesday, March 4, 2015 in Gresham.

He was born July 20, 1997 in Kyiv, Ukraine to Leonid and Olga Statsenko Zapolsky. Pasha is the oldest of four children and was a loving big brother. Pasha was known for being extremely intelligent, being wise beyond his years, caring to all, and always striving for success.

Pasha moved to Bullard, Texas in 2013 and became a student of The Brook Hill School. Pasha achieved all state academic honors and was a member of the Brook Hill tennis team and was a leader on the soccer team. Pasha's soccer brothers from Brook Hill will be honorary pallbearers.

Pasha's dream was to become a cardiologist so that he could heal people's hearts. Now, it is our prayer that the testimony of his life would be used by God to heal your heart.

He is survived by his loving family including his parents; brothers Zakhar and Solomon; sister Anna; and the entire Chadwell family.

Pasha's life was full of miracles and we know that God will continue to use his life as a testimony of God's power and sovereignty.

“ I never met Pasha, but after hearing from his friends, acquaintances and reading his letter; written a few weeks prior to his passing, gives me hope. America will miss you and his mother land will miss his dreams. May your family find peace and be blessed.

“ Pasha was so amazing. When I first met him about 2 years ago, he seemed like the typical preppy type that would never talk to me, and he was immediately more liked because he was the foreign exchange student. I never expected to become friends with him, but he treated me like anyone else. He was just so kind. I'll always remember him smiling and laughing. He liked to tease me or trip me playfully. I remember when he was in Ohio, he told me often about his little sister whom he missed a lot. I was excited for him when he got to go back home but even happier to hear that he was in the US again lately with the unfortunate situation in Ukraine. I didn't talk to him nearly as much after he left here, and now I'm really hating that. He was really just such a great guy that I know everyone he ever met will miss. I don't know why God chose to take him, but I'm sure He has great things planned for such a great person. Maybe that irresponsible person will see the horror caused and Pasha will have done one more good thing for the world.

“ Pasha was a good guy and taught me that people with different cultures could and should set aside their differences and live in peace. We became good friends and he shared with me pictures of his family. Hours before the accident Pasha and I with other friends were working out and having a good time. I now cherish that last time with Pasha. May he rest in peace. From Chasca Ortega

“ Pasha was a friend of mine before he went to Texas. We would go to the local gym together and he would always make me laugh and tell stories about his life back home and his future goals. He was a great person. I am so sad to know of his passing. Rest in peace. You will be missed.

“ Pasha made a difference everywhere he was present: in the classroom, on the soccer field, or among friends. His quick wit, sharp mind, and gentle laugh made it easy to love Pasha. He was a remarkable young man and he was deeply loved by his friends and teachers.

“ I remember the first time I had a conversation with Pasha..and knowing that what he had told me at that time would be one of the most profound things I have ever heard. He was such a good man, and loved so dearly with his gentle heart. I don't think he would of ever imagined how much he is and will continue to be missed. Much love to the Zapolskyy family.

“ Whenever my wife and I visited her family (the Chadwells) during this past year, we greatly enjoyed our time with Pascha. Well-mannered, intelligent, hard-working, full of potential and mature beyond his years... he will be greatly missed. May God grant peace to his family and all who cared for him.
