“ When I think of Peggy, a big smile spreads across my face. Her witty remarks made every conversation intriguing. Loved her compassion. And admire the strength and devotion that she and Howard share. Beautiful lady through and through.

“ Unfortunately, I never had the privilege of meeting Miss Peggy face-to-face, but through her wonderful husband and then conversations on the phone it was quite apparent that she was a neat lady!!

When Howard spoke of her the care in his voice let me know that she was very dear to him (and being a wife myself, it warmed my heart!) and when we visited on the phone it was apparent why he adored her!

My heart goes out to Howard and those who loved Peggy because I know this is a loss which is deeply felt!

I pray that the time between now and when you are reunited in heaven will be filled with blessings and joy...even though that may be hard to imagine right now...she would want it that way!!

May the God of COMFORT keep you through this time and know that we're here to help you ANY WAY possible!!

Love,
Becky :-)

“ *Dearest Howard,
How sweet, sweet Peggy will be missed.
I always enjoyed our visits together when my mom and I would drive to Tyler to drop Alicia off at Pine Cove.
We would eat pie and be HAPPY!
Take care and remember we love you very much!
