“ How often I sat in her chair and she made my hair so pretty. Not only that but she was a friend. So enjoyed her personality, hearing of her girls and grandchildren, slumber parties with her sister and all the girls . She so loved each and everyone of her family. She also shared her mission trips with her face glowing. Actually, Peggy always glowed from inside out. I had not seen her for a couple of years - had no idea she was ill until her obituary in the paper. I am shocked and so very sad for the deep loss to all of you. I am very familiar with ALS so am so sad this precious person and her family had to experience this horrific disease. I know she is happy in heaven. Sincerely, Ann Smith
