Shirley and ALL of Phillips loved ones.

My heart is still breaking for you all. Such a sad time for those who loved Phillip so dearly. You have all lost a huge part of your heart, I know.

I remember the first time I ever met Phillip. He was in his early twenties and came up to WM to visit his beautiful Mother, Shirley. He was smiling ear to ear and had an energy that was passionate about life. A little too passionate as I later learned from his Mother...something about boys. Seems Phillip and his brothers were always up to something that would make Shirley worry as Mother's often do. His smile, his passion for adventure and his nickname of "Cheese", I'll always remember.

May you rest in Heavenly peace dear Phillip.

Much love to all the friends and family who lost this young man entirely too soon from their lives.
