I've known Ms. Phyllis for for nearly 10yrs. I used to spend so much of my time in her room, we would talk for hours. I'd take care of residents and then go right back to her. She loved romantic movies and her favorites she would have multiples. We'd watched movies, t.v.shows, the news and we discussed how our day or lives were going. My girl was was fiesty, smart and always spoke her mind. And if she didn't like you she made sure you knew. Oh I how I've missed spending time with her. Our conversations were always the highlight of my day, she always made me laugh or smile... well except when she couldn't get her t.v to work. Her passing has added to my already sadden heart, I will always miss her. Phyllis spunk, her frankness and her spirit will forever be in my heart. I love you Ms Phyllis, until we meet again. 🙏💙💛🌸

I met Mrs. Phyllis seven years ago and we weren't the best of friends all the time. She kept me on my toes day and night. She would hide my staff in her apartment and then find tasks for me to do. I'm the Executive Director at her assisted Living. That was thoughts, she knew better. She was the queen, president of all nations. She got under my skin more days than I care to remember. I love this young lady. Someone with so much fire will never be remembered as an old woman. Everyday was a day that I was going to take charge of the situation, but if you knew her you know who was in charge. When she was nice to me I knew that she was sick or not feeling well. When she was upset with me I knew we had an understanding. God came for my angel and I know that she was ready, because so many times I would think it was the end and she would come back stronger. To the family thank you for letting her continue to live with us at Azalea Trails. She will always be a STAR in my eyes. Love you Guys

“ I didn't know Phyllis directly but she must have been phenomenal as I knew her son Ted through Temple Beth Tikvah and his positive impact on the newly formed congregation in Clear Lake made a welcome home for my young children which helped to solidify their Jewish identities.
