

Ray Calvin Kissel

April 15, 1932 - March 23, 2015

With a happy life behind him, Ray Calvin Kissel passed away on March 23, 2015 at Trinity Mother Francis Hospital. Ray's adventures in life began in Cortez, Colorado in April of 1932, and continued in both Southern California and Washington State, before spending his happy final years in Whitehouse, Texas. Ray was loved dearly by his wife of 35 years, Alice; his son Andrew and his wife Emily; and mother-in-law, Rose. Ray was a proud grandfather - "Bop Bop" - to two baby girls, Olivia Gray and Clara Lane Kissel. Ray was a decorated veteran of the United States Army and served overseas during the Korean War. During the rest of his lasting career, Ray worked as a printing and reproduction manager for several top accounting firms. Even in retirement living in the small town of Sequim, Washington, Ray busied himself with home building and maintenance projects. Ray was especially known as a kind-hearted man. He was loved just as universally by both family and friends. His loss is mourned, but his life - and the love and happiness he afforded others - is celebrated.
