Our memories go on for many years. Becky and Wayne traveled with Dorothy and me to many places; Atlanta, New Orleans, San Antonio, Dallas, San Diego, Palm Springs, Lake Tahoe, Las Angeles, San Francisco, Napa Valley and so many other great trips. The rounds of the wineries in Napa were so much fun as were all the trips. We will miss both Becky and Wayne. Life is short!

How I loved the Moore family! As a little girl I adored Becky, Ellen and Freda. I would sit and watch in awe while Becky and Ellen practiced twirling in the front yard and I would sit in the Troup Methodist church and be so delighted when the Moore girls spent a moment to speak to me. Mrs Moore was one of my favorite teachers and in my adult life the kindness, sweetness and Christian love remained. I remember talking to Becky soon after Wayne had passed away and I had lost my husband to cancer. Though the pain and grief was still present, she was, as always, so giving and kind. A truly wonderful woman from a wonderful family “ Though our friendship was not formed over a lifetime, I will always treasure the close bond of friendship we built over the past couple years.

Now Becky, next time I see you, when you're not RV'ing across Heaven's plains, we'll gather friends old and new for a fun game of Farkel, and game night will resume. Oh what joy that thought brings.
Rest In Peace my dear friend, never forgotten.

“ Please accept our sympathy for your loss. Becky & I were in Apache Belles at the same time. My husband, Gilbert Barton, knew Wayne at TJC better than I did. Both were always kind & thoughtful. They are now gathered together in His Name. There is comfort for you in that knowledge.

“ We became fast friends in Texas City at the first teachers meeting and continued our friendship over 57 years. Visiting through the years. Sharing many things. Becky was so loyal and up for anything we could dream up. I didn't have a sister and she became that for me. Wayne always made our visits so special. She will be a part of me until we meet again. What a Christian lady, She loved you girls so much. ”

“ Becky and I were classmates in the Troup Public Schools. She was then as she apparently remained the rest of her life - cheerful, full of energy and ideas, always willing to serve and a delight to be around. Certainly a life well lived and inspiring to all she touched.

“ To the family of Becky Clem,

I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother. She was such a ray of sunshine for our neighborhood. She always had a kind word for others and enjoyed life to the fullest. I am so grateful to have known her. I wish I could have had longer with her. We had a group of "single" women in our neighborhood that would get together to share stories, a bottle of wine and a good meal. Becky always had fun stories to tell, and made sure our plans were made far enough in advance that everyone could come. She was so excited about the trip that she and her daughters had taken to Europe over the Christmas holidays. She told me she had a fabulous time being together with her girls and shopping at the Christmas markets. I will miss Becky very much. Heaven has gotten an angel who loved the Lord and walked her faith every day. Patti Pickhard
