“ My mother resides at Alterra and was a friend of Dick's. She and Dick would visit while in the courtyard where they would both smoke and he was always extremely nice. I had the privilege of visiting with him many times and always enjoyed seeing him. My mother has commented that she misses him and I wanted to share with his family what a delightful person he was - even in his last days at Alterra. I remember how proud he was at Easter when so many from his family were there for the egg hunt. Our prayers are with you.

“ I met Dick at Fred Astaire's when we were young & foolish enough to think we could dance. He was a such a gentleman, had the biggest smile and greatest sense of humor. Also he was my dad's mechanic at Holley Motors.

I often think of the many times we laughed and sat around Willie Cooper Used Car lot. At that time we all could consume a bunch of beer and giggle a lot.

I will always think of him with a special fondness and remember his loving ways and great sense of humor.

God did and always will bless this man.
