“ I first met Dick when I moved to Tyler in the late 1950's. He had just gone to work for his dad at Hightower Lumber and I was a sales rep for radio station KTBB.
He was one of my customers until my retirement from KLTV in 1994.
Of the many people I knew during that time, he was my favorite-- always giving of his time and attention.
I know how deeply felt his loss is to his family and I know, too, that Tyler lost one of it's finest citizens.

“ To all the Hightower family... I am so sorry for your loss but what a way to go... doing something he loved dearly. We were neighbors when all the kids were young and we always played together at the pool. Please know that Tyler is a much better place because of Dick. When I married in 73 we were in the home building business and were at the Lumber yard daily. Tyler has lost a very wonderful business man, friend, and mentor. May God grant you all peace during this time of grief.

“ Dear Wendy and the rest of the Hightower family. I am so sad to hear about your father's passing. You can take great comfort in knowing what a an enjoyable last day he had here on earth and the immense joy he is now experiencing. Your father, like mine, were just two of the men who seemed larger than life when we were growing up and we could never have imagined them one day being gone. What a wonderful legacy he leaves and you can rest assured he will not be forgotten. To this day I come across people who tell me how they were touched by my father. The same will hold true for you. God bless you all.
