“ To my Biggest Little Brother.

It's been just one year ago today we said our goodbyes to you. Just 2 days ago we said goodbye to our daddy. We know he is with you and I can just hear the 2 of you singing "Sweet, Sweet Spirit" You are sorely missed everyday.

*Love you always

“ These pictures were taken almost 15 years to the day at a celebration of life for another AWESOME family member. Glenn (Shorty) Moore. Little Bob joined him in our Father's House exactly 15 years to the day. I wish I could have witnessed that reunion! Little Bob and me. Then all 5 of us and our father. The last time we were all together at one time

“ Missing my sweet cousin. I have such good memories in our childhood. Family gatherings and Holidays. You were so sweet to me. I wish we could have lived closer in your younger years growing up. I know you are in a much better place now, with a new body with no pain or hardships. Until we all meet again.

“ I have so many memories. Mostly wonderful. Even the disaster you always left my kitchen has been funny for a longtime. I am so very grateful for everyone of them. I love you and I know there were many members of a wonderful family waiting for you at the Gates of Heaven. Until we met again (and we will) my sweet(LOL) oldest little brother I want you to tell everyone howdy for me.
