“ Bob Hackett was one of the finest humans I have ever met. Always quick with a laugh, a smile, great conversation and unconditional love. I will miss you terribly, sweet Bob. Thank you for the many years of holiday fun and for being my friend through thick and thin. Rest easy and know how your heart changed a lot of lives. Kace and Keaton will forever be changed, along with myself.

“ Bob and Pat have been my close neighbors for over 14 years, and I have enjoyed knowing them. I witnessed Pat slowly slipping into the dark world of memory loss and watched Bob as he took such wonderful care of her for many years. He was always cheerful and optimistic, never a complaint. Our neighborhood will miss them. Love to Pat as she continues her life without him and to Scott and Randy as they grieve the loss of their beloved Dad.
