

Robert Scott King

November 11, 1945 - March 24, 2013

A memorial service for Robert Scott King, 67, will be held on Tuesday, April 2, 2013 at 10:30 AM with Rev. Bob Green officiating. Visitation will be held preceding the service at 10:00 AM at the Funeral Home.

Robert went to his Lord and Savior Sunday morning, March 24, 2013. He was dearly loved and will be missed by his family and friends. Scott was born September 11, 1945 in Jacksonville and lived his early years in East Texas, New London and Overton where he attended New London Elementary, Overton Elementary and High School, Kilgore Jr. College, Nacogdoches Jr. College and Texas AM, before moving to the Texas Gulf Coast Region in 1970.

Scott worked as a Texas State Game Warden for several years before getting into the oilfield service business where he work for several companys in various positions until his death.

When Scott was not working you could find him seriously involved in his favorite past time, hunting and fishing, a trait he acquired from his dad, Robert. Did not matter the season nor the weather, hunting was hunting. Scott always said "in bad times, it puts meat on the table".

Scott is survived by wife Pat; sons, Jason and Justin; daughter, Angie; son-in-laws and sister-in-laws; grandchildren; mother, Joyce; brother, Don; aunts, cousins and a host of loving friends and associates.

“ To Uncle Scott's Family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Uncle Scott was a character and we will cherish the memories we have of him. The service today, honoring him, was wonderful. He had many family and friends who loved him. I will never forget the time he brought home a baby deer and he and I fed it from a bottle. He always let me know he was there if I ever needed anything. We will all miss him.
