

Robert W. Lee

February 14, 1948 - July 19, 2018

Memorial services for Robert W. Lee, 70, of Tyler will be held on Sunday, July 29, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. at Grace Community Church, 3215 Old Jacksonville Hwy., directed by Shane Barnes and officiated by Robert's uncle, Lewis Earl Lee.

Mr. Lee passed away Thursday, July 19, 2018 in Tyler surrounded by his family. He was born February, 14, 1948 in Dallas to Robert Elvin Lee and Kathleen Louise Cotter Lee.

Robert was a member of Green Acres Baptist Church. He graduated from Baylor University where he earned his bachelor's and law degrees. He began his career as the Assistant City Attorney, before opening his private practice, where he worked until retirement.

Robert was an avid sports fan and loved participating in golf and baseball as much as possible. He found great joy being involved in his children's athletic endeavors, and he influenced many young men and women who knew him as coach over the years.

Robert is survived by his loving family including his wife of 46 years, Vinni Lee; his children, Jason Lee and wife Audra, Christa Hagler and husband Trace, Greg Lee and wife Jessica, and Traci Lee; his grandchildren, Lynsey and Lauren Lee, Aidan, Rebecca, Andrew and Annalise Hagler, Makayla, Kaydence and Oscar Lee; his sister, Sandra Kachel and husband John; his niece Abby Homer and nephew, Cody Kachel.

Honorary pallbearers will be Francisco Tellez, John Gamel, Gus Harmon, Steve Mason, and Choice Richardson.

Visitation is scheduled immediately following the memorial service.

“ Please accept my condolences for your great loss. I know first hand how difficult it can be to cope so its my prayer that you can find comfort from your favorite memories and the promises in the Bible. My favorite verse helps me by giving me something to look forward to, I hope it helps you also. - Revelation chapter 21 verse 4.

“ I have known Robert for almost the entire 42 years I have lived in Tyler. He was a good friend, colleague, attorney and father. He had a very keen mind and was always ready and willing to help no matter what the issue. Celebrate the life he led. He will be sorely missed.
