“ Bob, I will always remember you as a kind man who loved to laugh, tease this gal, support your church and love your family and friends. God gave us all a wonderful gift in you. Now, you are claiming your prize in heaven with Him. May God grant comfort and peace to your sweet family as they grieve. We will see you again in the twinkling of an eye when we, also, see Jesus. Love, Yyuvone

“I can do everything through Him who gives me strength.” Phil. 4:13

Dear Sue, Mom, Joyce Wise, just told me that you called, and I want to express my sympathy to you and your children. Mother has always had fond memories of you and Bob and the experiences that you all shared. Your friendship has always meant a great deal to her, and I have always felt a very special love for you through the memories that mother shared. Somethings are too big to face by yourself, but with a God like ours, you'll never have to. We will have you in our thoughts and prayers. You are not alone! Lean upon the LORD and find comfort in the Holy Spirit, our "Comforter".

Sincerely,

Karen Vess

“ Bob wore a smile on his face every day! He was a stranger to no one and went out of his way to make sure people were being taken care of. He and Sue were great role models and made everyone feel like they were part of their family. He touched many lives and made a difference in this world.

“ I never met a sweeter man than Bob. He and Sue were examples of how a Christian marriage is supposed to be. Their love for each other was so evident. My prayers to Sue and all of Bob's family. He will be missed!
