“ Dear Cano family, my condolences for your loss. Please know that death is not final. Our lord Jesus promised to awaken all those sleeping in the memorial tombs. (John 5:28,29) At that time your dear Robby will awaken to a peaceful new earth, free from all of the distressing things of today-including death.(Revelation 21:4,5) This will be made possible by means of God's kingdom ruled by Jesus Christ. May you all find much comfort and hope in Jehovah God's word the bible. Take care

“ Laura and Coach Cano, there is nothing I can say to make it better but do know that Robbie was and always will be a vb legacy among those that were fortunate enough to spend time with him on the court at school or at the park. I will never forget "here comes coach Cano and Robbie". It was always a two for one. The park and vb games have never been the same since you guys left and now it will definately never will be close to what it was years ago. We spent many summers and school years watching Robbie grow into a stronger and better vb player and I know we will always remember him. Know that you are all missed very much and he will never be forgotten.

“ Cano family, your son had a huge impact on me and my brothers life. Zach, Blake and Robby had a friendship so strong nobody could possible break. Your son was one of the funniest and happiest people I have ever met. God does everything for a reason! And sometimes those reasons are very hard to find, just like this one. But please keep praying for the strength, just like all of us are for your family. Your son will look down on you guys and see the great family he has.

God bless,
Trey Stout.

“Cano Family, I am speaking of everyone here at school (Michael Begley, Drew Wills, Blake Romero, Beau Fick and I) we are truly sorry for your loss. He meant a lot to us and was even looked at as a brother. Robbie or Reverend brought a joy to all of us, even with our bad days he could manage us to break a smile or a great laugh. Rocky was truly one of a kind and a was a friend that everyone wishes to have. We all have grieved but at the end we were breaking smiles because of the things your son did and said. He will be missed a ton but he will also never be forgotten. We must know that God had better plans, though many of us question the reasoning, it must have been for the better. I will miss the great memories of golfing, swimming, and just hanging out. Though it hurt the way it ended up I wouldn't trade one second for what we had. I am so thankful that he was able to come down this summer so we could hang out. I am sorry for your loss and wish you guys the best.
God Bless

“ Laura & Hugo, I am so sorry for your loss! Robbie (or Reverend as he was called by my sons) was a great kid that had grown into a kind, funny, caring, compassionate young man. He meant the world to my middle son Blake and also to Zach and Trey. My family enjoyed his company in our new home one month ago and we had such a good time. It is with a heavy heart that I write this tribute. I find peace and comfort in God and know that you will as well. God bless you.
