“ Ron was a sweet, funny, thoughtful, kind child, and he grew up to be a sweet, funny, thoughtful, kind man. He did not just profess his faith, he lived it, every day of his life. We will all miss him greatly, but you who loved him best will miss him most. You are all in my heart and prayers. Pam

“ Ron was a generous person, and helped out several times with some missions projects. The Lord used him (unknown to him) to finish up one project in particular.
I also remember Ron's optimistic spirit that things would work out. He was a good example.

“ We will miss Ron's presence at our extended family functions--like Thanksgiving in Celeste. He was a fixture there every year. Family was important to him. I learned over the years that his family was very special to him & that his faith in our Lord was the glue that held all things together. We will miss him.

“ We have prayed for Ron and Becky and their family many many times in our Sunday School class. Suetta has sent me copies of several emails she received from Becky. Gregg and I have been amazed at their faith and the strength they exhibit because of it. I know they both will hear from our Lord, "Well done my good and faithful servant" . . . which is certainly my goal and the goal of every Christian. The Bakers faith has certainly been tested and purified . . . and the result has been pure gold in the Lord's eyes. Praise God for their living testimony . . . which will be eternal. Lovingly in Christ,
