“ I had the pleasure of working with Ron countless times throughout the years in dealings between the law firm and Southside Bank. My prayers and condolences go out to Ron's family during this difficult time. Ron was detail-oriented and a pleasure to deal with. He was a banker's dream. May God rest his soul.

“ My memory isn't of one singular event but an account of many memories shared over the last several years. Any time I visited the Milam farm, Ron and Janet welcomed me and my family with open arms. Sitting around the breakfast table, we would chat over pancakes and Ron would get around to telling one of his jokes. I can hear his laugh now, it was so pure. Ron could be a man of many words or a man of few words. He was extremely intelligent and was a wealth of knowledge on many topics. Ever since his first grandson was born, another highlight became seeing pictures and videos of the time my nephews got to spend on the farm. I loved seeing Samuel and Eric sitting with their Papa Ron and Granny Jan, feeding the cows, playing in the pool, and just simply enjoying the quality time of being together. When thinking of a word that reminds me of Ron it would be “constant”. He was the pillar of his wonderful family. He worked hard and the word lazy was no where near his vocabulary. I am sad to think of all the memories we won't get to have with Ron, but I am happy he is in Heaven where his true citizenship has always been. Janet, I am praying for you each and every day. I know that Jesus will take care of you and will help to fill the empty places that now exist because of such a life-altering loss. To the rest of the family, Mark, Matt, James, and all, my heart and my thoughts and prayers are with each of you. May God bless you and help you press forward in this life without your precious father. With so much love, Carmen Hampton and family.
