

Ronald James Rogers

December 10, 1951 - July 8, 2022

Memorial services for Ronald James Rogers, 70, of Tyler, will be held on Saturday, July 23rd at 10:30 a.m. at Marvin United Methodist Church with Pastor Marc Donaldson officiating.

Mr. Rogers passed away Friday, July 8, 2022, in Tyler. He was born December 10, 1951, in Ft. Benning, Georgia to Leroy and Ann Turner Rogers.

Ronald was a gifted musician and instilled a love of music in his family. He was an avid reader and a long-distance truck driver. He lived with Multiple Sclerosis for over 21 years, and though he was bedridden for 19 of those years, his positive attitude and love for God was an example and an encouragement to those he encountered.

Ronald was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Gary Rogers. He is survived by his loving family including daughter, Angela Jennings and husband, Jason; daughter, Amanda Hoover and husband Ric; daughter, Carrie Darden and husband, Casey; sister, Sharon Haynes; and numerous grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the staff of Park Place Nursing & Rehabilitation Center for their compassionate care of Mr. Rogers throughout his time there.

If desired, memorials may be made to the Griffin Elementary Music Program, 2650 N. Broadway, Tyler, TX 75702 Attn: Music Dept.; the Multiple Sclerosis Association of America (www.mymsaa.org) 375 Kings Hwy North, Cherry Hill, NJ 08034; or the Christus Trinity Mother Frances Foundation (www.christushealth.org) 919 Hidden Ridge, Irving, TX 75038.
