“Joan & family, So sorry to hear of your mom’s passing. I am sure you all have missed her every day. I am sure there is a special place in heaven for such a loving mother. She was our chauffeur for our adventures to Westgate or Secor Park. I remember her as a business woman and the trip I accompanied you on to Memphis. Didn’t we see Graceland? I think your mom even let me drive! She was always so kind. I am sorry for your loss.

“Aunt Rosie and Uncle Bob and family were part of the fabric of my childhood. I'll always remember the adults playing cards while Joanie and Dini and Barbie and I were finding fun somewhere out of sight. When her sister, Dorothy, could no longer speak due to dementia, I was in awe of the patient way Rosie and dad played pinochle with her, reminding her what was trump and that it was her turn. And I'll always remember how Aunt Rosie could fall asleep the minute she got in a comfortable chair! She is the last of the the children of Agnes and Albert and was a good friend to my father. My condolences to my cousins and Rosie's grandchildren.
