

Rosemary Holcomb

July 19, 1913 - May 29, 2010

Private graveside services for Rosemary Leaverton Holcomb, 96, of Tyler, are scheduled for 10 am Wednesday, June 2, 2010, at Rose Hill Cemetery under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Mrs. Holcomb passed away Saturday, May 29, 2010 at Hospice of East Texas. Rosemary was born July 19, 1913 in Grapeland, Texas to the late David Nunn and Linnie Hollingsworth Leaverton, but spent her life in many places: Lubbock, Midland, McMinneville, Oregon, and Marble Falls, before making her home in Tyler 26 years ago. Aunt Rosemary and Uncle Harry, as they were lovingly known to over 50 nieces and nephews, have a special place in the hearts of every one of them. Rosemary's generous spirit, artistic talent, gift of cooking, and her love of family, made life more beautiful for all who knew her. Rosemary was happily married to Harry Holcomb for 49 years until his death in January of 1999. She is survived by her sister, Nancy Hutson of Tyler, her brother Herbert Leaverton and wife Pat of Lubbock, and many devoted nieces and nephews. The family will receive friends from 5:00-7:00 pm on Tuesday, June 1, 2010 at Stewart Family Funeral Home 7525 Old Jacksonville Hwy., Tyler, Texas 75703 If desired memorials in honor of Rosemary Holcomb may be made to Hospice of East Foundation 4111 University Blvd., Tyler, Texas 75701.
