

Rosemary Jackson

April 3, 1937 - August 1, 2015

A memorial service for Rosemary Jackson, 78, of Tyler, will be held on Saturday, August 8, 2015 at 2:00 PM at Stewart Family Funeral Home with Rev. Ginger Brant officiating.

Our loving mother joined the Lord on Saturday, August 1, 2015, in Tyler. She was born April 3, 1937 in Burlington, Iowa to Harold Leslie and Frances Beatrice Davenport Thornton.

Rosemary was a member of First Christian Church in Tyler. She grew up in Mt. Pulaski and graduated with her Masters in Criminal Justice, working as a correctional officer in the Logan County Correction Facility. She retired as Transfer Coordinator for the State of Illinois after thirty years of service. Rosemary moved to Texas after retirement to be near her children. She loved reading, gardening and Sudoku.

Rosemary was preceded in death by her first husband Kenneth Howe, Jr.; second husband, William Jackson; son, Steven Howe; grandson, Christopher Nace Heard, II; and brother-in-law, Donald Goodman.

She is survived by her loving family including three daughters, DeLisa Heard and husband Nace of Tyler, Debra Graham of Tyler and Jacqueline Gilmer and husband Larry of Longview; grandchildren, Joshua Howe, David Howe, Caleb Carter and wife Emily; great-grandchildren, Devin Howe and Clara Rose Carter; sister, Sue Young and husband Jack of Farmington, Missouri; brother, Frank Thornton and wife Pat of Springfield, Illinois and sister, Leslie Goodman of Ironton, Missouri.

If desired, memorials may be made to Pets Fur People, 1823 CR 386, Tyler, TX 75708.

“ I cherished our friendship more than you could ever know, Rosie. I'll always remember the long talks we had about anything and everything. Our annual meals to Potpourri House and your constant ray of light, even when things got dark. I loved spending time with you. I'll remember you every year on our birthday and await the day when we can celebrate together again in glory.
