“ Roy (or Skip as we called him) and I grew up together. We went to school together and also went to the same church. We had so many good time. My best friend and I, and Skip and his best friend, Wayne spent a lot of time on the telephone. Skip and Wayne lived in an oil company camp so they were on a party line. My friend would come to my house because we had two phones and we could all four talk at one time. After high school I lost touch with Skip but often wondered about him. We connected again about a year and a half ago and I have enjoyed catching up on things and sharing new things with each other. I will miss him.

“ You were one of the first people we met when we moved in to East Lake Woods. I'm sure most of our neighbors would say the same. You were a goodwill ambassador welcoming new families, always willing to lend a helping hand. A "go to" kind of guy. You will be sorely missed.

Roy was one of a kind; his sense of humor was as far in left field as mine is. One of the pipe lines that he checked on from time to time was directly across the road from our house. One day helicopters were going back and forth over it and I called Roy to ask what might be going on or should we leave the area. He explained how the company watches the lines to keep those around it safe.

From this day forward, when I see a yellow and black pipeline marking, I'll think of Roy and say a prayer for Adrann and the family. Roy, you'll have no more stints, no more hospital stays, heart attacks and no more "good byes" so for now, we'll say good bye my Friend; please say hello to Jesus for us and we'll be seeing you there some day. As the song says, "Rest high on the mountain, your work on earth is done."
