“ I still think of you every day. I miss you and I wish I told you I forgave you. I still see you in my dreams and I wish I had told you that last time I heard you too. I wish I hadn't been embarrassed I looked too horrible for a video call.

“ I remember walking in the snow to snake mountain as we called it then. Many hours playing in the field behind your parents house or woods. Russell and his sweet twin my friend. I'm so sorry to read that he has passed away. My condolences to all of you. I hope he is running and playing in heaven now. With love I send to all of you from Erin C.
