“ I met Mrs. Conway at Saint Cecelia's Catholic School in Dallas, TX where she was a teacher, when I was in the 6th grade. Her daughter, Kathleen was in my class. Kathleen and I went to school together for the next five years and became good friends. We knew her as Elise Conway, and I know that she touched many lives as a teacher. May the peace and love of Our Lord be with her and with her family.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also says that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time.

“ Although we didn't spent a lot of time together, Elise was always quick with a smile and a hug around the neck. I always felt her love and affection. I send my condolences to Cookie, Kathleen, Bill and all the grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

“ I worked in the office with Elise at Quinlan ISD for a number of years. She was a special person and a good friend. I had lost touch with her and saw her obituary in the Greenville paper. My condolences to her children and grandchildren. I know you will miss her. I was just wondering about her lately.

“ I have had the opportunity to know Mrs. Conway a long time. She was always cheerful and interested in what you were doing. One of the things I always noticed was her innate belief that Bill just knew how to handle any and all tasks... what an absolute confidence builder! While the complete opposite of a "hover craft" mom, she always was quick to be able to proudly update you on Bill's achievements. In no way was there any ever any braging...simply the normal,expected conclusion of her Bill's efforts. Her pride in her family was tangible and easily felt. I honestly am not sure I knew her first name was Ruth...I always thought it was.. "Mrs"

She saw no need in familiarity,simply respect. Persons as they leave this world are best remembered in my opinion, by one word...love... Mrs. Conway was loved.

My very best to her Family.
