“ Sandra King was a Lady, kind, generous and always aware of other’s presence and needs. She was curious, wanting to know new things and looking for the next good book. Her conduct was always of the highest decorum and courtesy. God help us to honor her by living out her Christian Principles! She was a welcome guest with the regular Chick-fil-A Breakfast Club (South Broadway) We will surely miss her! God is good!

“ There are not enough words to express how kind Sandra was to all her friends and even strangers. She was a great Christian Mother and wife. She loved the Lord and she shared this love with all.

I remember when my husband passed and she visited at anytime to visit with encouraging words and books to read to help me through grieving. It was always a pleasure to open my door and see her.

Sandra will be dearly missed. I pray she is lifted up on Angels wings and walking with the Lord in heaven. May she rest in peace.

Deepest Condolence's
