“ When I think of Sandy, I think of JOY. Her smile gave hope to all of us and her laughter could fill a room. She was a happy soul and took that joy wherever she went.

She also had the heart of a true servant - wanting to make life better for everyone she met - whether it was a grandchild or the kid at Subway who made her a sandwich. She was always looking for ways to bring goodness and healing into this 'ole world.

One of the things I learned to appreciate about Sandy over our 20 years of friendship was her willingness to help me. She could do anything!!! I learned early on to never say "NO" for her. She was always willing and at times would drop everything to help an old friend out. I don't know that I've ever had a friend like that and probably never will again.

Yep - Sandy was one of a kind - joyful, loving, caring and a wonderful friend. I miss her terribly but take great delight that she is now free to REALLY enjoy life without pain, loss, tears, disappointment, uncertainty or worry. She is definitely resting in peace - safe in the arms of Jesus. Until we meet again my friend - Love and hugs - Barbara Huggins
