“ I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved Sandra. May the love and concern of family and friends bring you comfort and solace during this most difficult time. Remember, not that Sandra has died, but that she lived and her life gave you memories too beautiful to forget. Although grief of Sandra's passing is great - JOY of welcoming her back in the resurrection will be even greater, for Christ promised, "I Am The Resurrection and The Life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, Will Come To Life." (John 11:25) With deepest sympathy.

“ I remember the best times growing up and visiting at my aunt sandras house. She would allow me and Jason to play endlessly and encourage our happiness. She embraced our childhood noise with delight. She always smiled and encouraged everyone. Never did I hear a bad comment. I have not seen her in so long but will cherish and remember the good times. To the friends and family, I am so far away but here in New York at same time will honor Aunt Sandra. I love you all and feel your pain. God bless you all.
