“ *To the Austin & Stanley families:
Our prayers & thoughts are with you all during this difficult time. We have known you & your family Cody, since you were in Avery Jr. High & Sarah since you & her began to date. We were there when you two were joined in marriage. Our granddaughter, Emily, was a classmate of Sarah's. Your daddy was among our best friends & your mom still is. We pray that the Lord will give you comfort & courage for today & tomorrow. If there is ANY WAY we can assist you, we stand ready to do so. We will be in Tyler Thursday through Saturday. Our cell phone will be on (903) 216-3936.
Be assured we love you. David & Janette*

“ Just to say we're sorry and that our thoughts and prayers are with your family would never be enough. The loss of a child is something no parents are ever prepared to go through. We hope in some small way that knowing others are grieving with you will somehow ease your pain. Your sorrow is our sorrow.

“ Sarah was a bright and thoughtful individual. I met Sarah when she was a student in my early childhood education class during Spring 2010. I learned that she had a heart for working with hearing impaired students. She will be missed.

“ I will never forget when Sarah sang silly songs to our son, hearing them laugh together. I will never forget hanging out during college and after as married couples. I will never forget you Sarah- you will always be in my heart. Cody and Family, our thoughts and prayers are with you now and always.

With Lots of Love.

“ Ron,
So sorry to hear about your daughter. Terry Robbins called to let me know. We've been there and personally know how rough it is. Our daughter was killed when she was 17. Only through God's grace were we able to bear it. Time will help to soften the pain. We don't understand why these things happen, but we have to believe it is God's plan. We'll keep you and your family in our prayers.

“ Ron and Rhonda, my heart aches for you in the lost of your precious Sarah. I cannot even imagine the grief you are enduring. She was dear to me as well as I loved watching her grow up into a beautiful young lady. She always seemed excited to see me when we met. Our relationship began when she was about 5 and we went to Glorieta together. We cannot anticipate life's turn of events but I know she loved the Lord and is with Him today. May God carry you tenderly through your grief and please know that I am here for you.
