“ Shannon was such a kind and caring soul. She was quiet at times but when she had something to say she was the life of the party. I will miss her smile and her laid back attitude towards life.

“ Shannon was one of the parents I looked forward to visiting with while our daughters played soccer. Down to earth with a ready smile, her children were her pride and joy. And though Shannon has gone ahead, her love and dreams for her children remain. May they live their lives in the light of her love and realize the hope of her dreams. God will lead the way.

“ My sweet friend will be missed. I am saddened by the thought that I did not stay close to such a good friend. We had such fun times together that I will remember always. The laughter that we shared on those cold nights in Yellowstone will forever keep a smile on my face. We had such fun, she brought joy to those around her.

I am so sorry for your lose, I hope that you will draw on the memories to fill the sadness in your heart, because she will always remain in all our hearts.

*Sincerely,
Tex*

“ Shannon was one of my favorite people in high school. So welcoming of me as a newcomer and the most fun and smiling person. We were cheerleaders together and shared a lot of laughs. Shannon lived around the corner from me, and drove me to school before I could drive. We laughed at her car every day, and she always gave it a little "pat" when we made it to school with out breaking down!! My boys enjoyed Lindsey through school, and I enjoyed seeing you through sports and our kids. You were a unquely sweet and happy person, I miss you.

“ Bill, I am most sorry to hear of your loss! You have my sincerest condolences. I've never lost a child but my younger brother (by 5 years) died tragically in an auto accident just before he was to graduate from high school. Twenty years after his death my Mother would still "tear up" when we mentioned him in her presence. Again, I'm thinking of you at this difficult time.

“ Shannon and I were often mistaken for one another during our time at Moore Junior High as we favored each other a lot! We even shared the same birthday and referred to each other as "birthday Twins". I had not seen Shannon for many years until this past fall (october 2008) when her mother and my dad were a mere 3 doors down from each other in the hospital as they battled cancer. I surprised Shannon by showing up at her moms room one evening with my liitle sister and niece and she was so excited, as was I. We had not seen each other since high school and we had a wonderful visit and talked about old times and remembered old friends. It was so good to see her and becuase we were going through similiar circumstances it made the visit even more special. She sent the sweetest message to my mom after my dad passed away using this very message board. I know she was heart broken when her mom passed away and I knew what she was going through. It is hard for me to believe that I am writing now about her. She was far to young to leave but she is with her mom now and I know they are taking good care of each other. My heart goes out to her dad who is suffering another tragic loss and my prayers will be with him and her children during this difficult time. Love to you all, Darlene

“ Dear Mr. Bill,
Please, accept my deepest sympathy as you mourn the loss of your beloved Daughter Shannon. Her death was so unexpected and happened so fast. I am certain that it is hard for you and all the FAMILY members to even grasp the idea that she is not with you here. I pray that GOD will grant you consolation and peace that only HE can give. JESUS said: "I AM the Resurrection, I AM the Life; whoever believes in ME, even if he dies will live, and everyone who lives and believes in ME will never die."
May you find comfort in JESUS' promise.
Please, know that I hold you and all the Family members, especially Michael, Lindsay and Amy in my thoughts and prayers, in deepest sympathy, lovingly in Jesus, Sister Margo
