“ My dearest Shara, my first friend when I moved to Houston in the adjoining townhouse on Westgate. Shara was so giving that homeless people would come to her house and ask her for help. She never turned them down. She loved fully and she lived big. She truly just wanted to be loved and accepted. Shara was beautiful, funny, clumsy, whitty, frustrating, but most of all loving. I will miss you dear friend. I will always remember our special friendship. With a heavy heart, I love you! Rest in Peace dear Shara
