“ I remember when her grand daughter Kristina wallet was stolen in the airport. she was so young 13 and afraid. I called you and you drove to the airport in GA where she had a layover and you made her feel better, took care of her, gave her your love. Such a beautiful heart, always loving your family with everything you were. Love you your Angel

“ My mom was always loving and compassionate, always thought of others before herself. She loved everyone her friendly nature could win over complete strangers. Her radiance and utter selflessness always inspired me to be a better person to love everyone to show compassion to all. I will live every day remembering not only your outer beauty but your inner light. Love you your angel
