It took him all day to talk me into letting him ride my trike. I finally gave in and told him just to the gate and back. He loved it. Talked about getting a trike after that. So sad that he's gone. I miss seeing him everyday!! RIP Sherman! Much Love....

“ My deepest sympathy to Sherman's boys and family. I will miss his talks and advice. One of my favorite memories was the travels I took when he was working all over the place painting water tanks, and he taught me how to drive a fork lift treated me like family and the little jobs I did for him around the shop like wash and detail his trucks, camper and such...he was such a friend to me at the time I was married to one of his employees back in the 90's. He will be missed by all that knew him.
