“ Dear Billy and Tricia, I couldn't pass up the opportunity to tell you how much I thought of your mom ( and dad). I was always very glad to see their names on my schedule at Dr. Connally's and later Dr. Latta's office, because through the years of being their dental hygienist, we had become friends and I loved visiting with them. I was able to keep up with you both, and I know how proud they were of you. Billy, she appreciated you handling things for her after your dad died, and Tricia she so looked forward to visits with you and your family. When my mom died and we returned to dad's house from the funeral ,your mom was one of the ladies who was there to help serve the meal. I can never explain how special and heartwarming it was to see her that day and get that special hug from her. It's a memory of her I'll always treasure. I'm very glad I got to know them both. Sincerely, Sheryl Hogue
