

Sidney Ginsberg

February 1, 1941 - September 9, 2012

A graveside service for Sidney Ginsberg, 71, of Houston, will be held on Thursday, September 13, 2012 at 11:00 AM at Rose Hill Cemetery with Rabbi Neal Katz and Rabbi Gene Levy officiating. Mr. Ginsberg passed away September 9, 2012 in Houston. He was born in Tyler on February 1, 1941 to Nathan and Jeanette Ginsberg. He resided in Tyler most of his life. Sidney was married for forty seven years and had two children. He graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Petroleum Engineering. He and his brother Joe Ginsberg owned a used car lot, a finance company and an independent insurance agency. Sidney loved football, cars, poker and traveling. He is survived by his wife Marcie Ginsberg; son, Neil Ginsberg; daughter and son-in-law, Dina and Jonathan Glasser and grandson Aidan. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Tyler Chapter of Hadassah, Congregation Beth El or Ahavath Achim Synagogue or to your favorite charity

Tribute Wall

CW

“ One of the finest people we have ever known-he was a great and loyal friend. We're so sorry to hear of his passing. Our love to the Family.

Carol and Glenn Ab Walters - September 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ I was so sorry to read of Sidney's death. I much admired Sidney and his strenght of character. He and the rest of the family were such a joy to work with, and I loved my time being a part of your "insurance family". Marcie, Dina, and Neil, my heartfelt sympathy goes out to you in this time of sorrow.
Martha

Martha Brown - September 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ Sorry to hear about Sidney's death.

Stanley & Lynn Waghalter - September 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM