“ Dear Judy,
How surprised we all were Sunday morning to hear the news about Stan. You know it is always times like this when we realize we should have expressed our thoughts sooner. You and your sweet family add a sense of joy and peace with your quiet, gentle spirit. You and Stan have provided calming inspiration to many people without even realizing it. Please know you and the girls will be lifted up in prayer. Just as you and Stan have provided comfort through your peace and grace, I pray that you will experience that same comfort from Our God.

“ To all the family: I would like to express my sincerest sympathy for your loss. The thing that sticks out in my mind is the grin he always had on his face. I have known him for over thirty years (almost my whole life!)and I am proud to say I knew him and loved him like a brother. I am so glad he was such a christian man and a role model for his daughters. They will carry that with them through life, even though his time with them was short. You are all in my thoughts and prayers and will continue to be.

“ My heart goes out to you all. I visited with Stanley in Lufkin at The Academy just about one year ago. He looked so good, and I am thankful we had the time to reflect on our high school years and our many youth group trips with FBC, Hemphill. Stanley was always a sweet, genuine, and classy guy who had my respect. I am praying for all his family during this time of sorrow.

“ I worked with Stan for a few months in 2006 at New York Life. He was an enjoyable person who loved his family, his church, and his job. He was someone who believed in giving of oneself for the betterment of everyone. When Stan got ill last year I helped a little with his business affairs, and then moved from Tyler, but have continued to think of him often. I am so sorry that this happened, and my thoughts and prayers are with Judy and his daughters.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Nolley - read in our local paper about Stanley. I offer my deepest condolences regarding your loss. “ Very rarely does a family enter your life and make a lifelong impact, but that is exactly what the Nolley family did for me. Stan was such a ray of sunshine every time I spent time with him. I loved him as a small boy, and as he grew into manhood, I was constantly amazed at his wisdom in how to live life to its fullest. Judy and the girls, you have had so many wonderful memories crowded into the few years you shared with Stan. Bobbie and Frazier, you gave Stan a Christian foundation that allowed him to know the true meaning of a successful life. We will all miss that wonderful smile and gentle nature.
May God bless each of you and meet your every need.
