“ I am so sorry for this tragedy. We all know there are no words that will take away your pain or answers to all the "whys?". But sometimes it's enough to know that Christ himself was a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief and even now, He is praying for you. Like I told Danny - I lost my brother earlier this year and I still haven't made sense out of it, but thank God we don't have to go through sorrow and sadness by ourselves. God bless you all as you mourn the loss of Stephen. Please feel free to call me anytime - night or day.
