“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Tami, Dusty, Connie,

Le Nan and I are so sorry to hear of Steve. He and I would talk every 4 months or so and always talk and laugh about the fun and hard work we did together in the crazy marine business. I looked at Steve as almost a brother in many ways. it was a priviledge to have known him. We pray for you all and know that their is really nothing that can be said that will make things better. We will surely miss him dearly.

“ I am so very sad to hear of Steve's passing. I talked to Steve about 2-3 years ago on the phone. We chatted for quite a while. It was such a fun conversation. He was EXTREMELY HAPPY! He was telling me all about his wonderful family. He was madly in love with his wife and so proud of his kids. He told me no less than 3 times how beautiful his wife was. I feel blessed to have known Steve. When I think of him I smile. He always made me laugh. My prayers go out to his parents, wife and children. God Bless, Shannon “ Steve Rhoades was one of the most sincere people I've ever known.

I was fortunate enough to work a handful of radio broadcasts of high school football with him, and believe me, he made them special with his amazing ability to paint a picture along with some once in a lifetime moments off-mic.

Oh, if some of those press boxes could talk...

He was truly one of a kind.

He was a teddy bear of a man, and he made a difference in many lives, including mine.

Just last week, Steve and I made up for some lost time and enjoyed a lengthy conversation about life in general and family and he said something to me that helped me more than he'll ever know.

I thank God we had that time because I will take what he told me through the rest of my life.

I asked him how he was feeling, 2-3 times, and each time he said, "I'm fine, I feel very good."

Obviously, Steve had an incredible threshold of pain and didn't want anyone else to know he was hurting and he's now in a better place.

My family and I will miss Steve and his smile, and we wish the very best to Tammi and the children.

We will also say a few prayers for the rest of the family, including Dusty and Connie.

Tammi, your husband made an impact in my life and we already miss him.

Dusty and Connie, your son was truly special who had a heart full of gold.

“ It has been many years, but I still remember them well. I had the priveledge of rooming and attending both High school and college with Steve. We both attended La Tech to play football and it was there that I got to know Steve. Under that tough guy exterior that many of us knew growing up, was a great guy with compasion and a heart for God. I remember both of us as rookies in camp getting hazed by the older players and how we tried to work together to get away from them.....We didnt! I remember that even as a rookie in camp, he was still one hell of a good football player! I remember his passion for fishing/boating and how he got to live his dream while working. We should all be so lucky. Thank you Steve for the impact you had in my life. I will see you at Heavens gate my friend!

Please extend my sympathies to the Rhoades family.

“ My heart goes out to all of Steve's family, most especially his children, wife and parents. Like so many others who have written tributes here, I have AMAZINGLY fond memories of the big guy I called "Rhoadie" - the one guy who was ALWAYS there with a laugh, a smile or a hug at just the right moment. The world could use a few more guys like Steve - and I hope it will be some comfort for his children to know how many people loved and cherished their dad, all with good reason. I haven't talked to Steve in over 25 years, yet his generous friendship still remains a bright spot in my life and his gracious smile will always be in my memory.
