“ As kids growing up on Lee Street there were lots of good times...one I have never forgotten was when I got a little coke machine that a bottle coke fit in with tiny cups. Steve bought me out one day, but then his Mama came over to get his money back...a quarter a cup. LOL Steve was a good guy with a big heart. He will be missed but never forgotten!! Phyllis you are in my thoughts and prayers, may God grant you the peace you need to face the days ahead.

Steve and I met several years ago at a golf tournament. Every time we met after that, was like we had been friends forever. I learned that he had an amazing sweet gentle spirit, will miss you much Steve. Prayers of peace for your family.
