

Jean Larkin

December 4, 1928 - January 2, 2023

Jean Larkin went to be with her Lord and Savior January 2, 2023. Jean was born near Stamford, Texas to Joseph and Ernie Fulmer Sykora.

The family moved to Fort Worth, Texas at the beginning of World War II. Jean graduated from high school in Fort Worth. She began work for Southwestern Bell Telephone while in high school and retired as a member of their management team in 1981.

Jean met the love of her life, Christopher Larkin, at a USO dance at Carswell Air Force Base near Fort Worth. They were married in 1950. To their union, Kathleen was born and her baby brother, Christopher Jr., who went to the Lord at birth.

Jean loved the Lord and loved her family. She received the Lord as her personal savior at Birchman Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth. Jean loved her family making a wonderful, loving home. She was a talented seamstress who made beautiful clothes. Jean loved to sing with her daughter, Kathleen, especially hymns. Jean seemed to always have endless energy. Chris and Jean loved to dance.

Mom loved the Lord and His church. "Without Him, I could do nothing." She went peacefully to be with the Lord in her salvation.

Jean was preceded in death by her beloved son and husband, Chris. She was also preceded in death by her beloved mother, Ernie; father, Joseph; siblings, Leroy Anthony Sykora, Yvonne Louise Hutchins, Ernie Joe Bishop, Marcus Benoitl Sykora, and James David Sykora; as well as may other members of her family.

Jean is survived by her daughter, Kathleen, and many other family members and friends.
