Intelligent, witty, humble and a true servant. As the virtuous woman described in Proverbs, this is how we remember our mother. A hard working business woman who would have breakfast ready and lunches made every morning. In the evening there was always a home cooked dinner ready for all. Whenever there were family gatherings Sue would be behind the scenes making sure all were taken care of. Sue's granddaughters have all commented on the example SuSu is for them of what it was to be a woman, wife and mother. In addition to family Sue had a broad impact on many in Texas and Colorado. Our family is so grateful for all the support from the Emerald Bay Community and many Tyler friends.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Emerald Bay Community Church, 160 La Salle Rd, Bullard, Texas 75757 or the Salvation Army, 633 N. Broadway Ave., Tyler, Texas 75702

“ I remember Sue as such a beautiful and classy lady, always looking lovely and keeping such a beautiful home. Our children were so lucky to have their young years in the old neighborhood surrounding DeGolyer School. We all have great memories of their learning to ride bikes, water skis, and snow skis, and what fun we all had as families sharing their experiences. My son, Steve, had his first job with Pillsbury Boats and his love of all things truck, trailer, and boat wise has lasted to this day. My deepest sympathies to Frank Sr., Franklin, Bill, and Chill. My, how the family has grown! Love and sincere wishes, Carolyn Mayer, Steve Mayer, and Susie Mayer.

“ Sue Pillsbury was such an inspiration to Don and me when we arrived in Emerald Bay only a short time ago. We will never forget Sue and we will always remember how her Christ-like example to us as new community members was so warm and welcoming. We thank you Jesus that you blessed us by allowing her life to cross ours. She was a blessing to us each time we saw her.She was loved, she was sweet, and she will be forever missed by so many.
