“ Mamaw (Sybil) and Gigili (Daig) always brightened up my summers as a kid whenever my father and I would go see them. Sometimes I would stay with them for months until school started. I remember how much mamaw hated it when Gigili and I would repetitively sing Dogwood City as we passed through it. Moments and precious memories have stayed with me to this day and there is no doubt that Mamaw and Gigili lived their best lives together. Even though they are gone, I know that one day I shall see them again. I love you mamaw and you as well Gigili, thank you for making my childhood as grand as you possibly could.

“ My dear, precious friend and sister in Christ is at peace at last. We rejoice with her; knowing she is at rest. May God sustain each of you during this time of loss of a dear mother, mother-in-law, sister and grandmother. A dear, faithful and loving servant of God's kingdom who has served the Lord all of her life and He has blessed her with His love and reward. Jo Anders
