“ *Beth,when we were much younger, Sheryl and would pretend you were "our" baby when playing house!
Then I taught you in Sunday School and from there, I watched you grow in beauty and grace...I have sweet memories...you will live in my heart forever.*

My sincere love, prayer and sympathy to Paul, your children, your Mother and your wonderful sisters, Sheryl and Becky...we are family, sometimes we laugh together and sometime we cry...may HIS presence surround you.

Say "hello" to my Mother and Dad...

“ Our thoughts are with the DelaTorre/McAlpine family. Nothing can ever be said to help the hurt of losing a loved one. But we can only imagine the better place Mrs. DelaTorre is in now. One day we will see her again.

“ It's with great sadness that I read of the death of this beautiful woman, beloved sister of my precious friend, Sheryl. Beth's strength obviously came from her Lord, and she left an unforgettable legacy of family and grace.

God bless you all,
