

Trang Vo

December 31, 1979 - January 11, 2026

Trang Vo, 46, of Tyler, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her loving family on Sunday, January 11, 2026. She was born December 31, 1979, in Gò Công, Vietnam. As a child, her family found refuge in the United States and began their American journey in Maryland.

Trang was an emergency department physician serving at the VA Medical Center in Memphis, Tennessee, as well as UT Health Tyler and Christus Trinity Mother Frances. She was a graduate of the University of Maryland and Ross University School of Medicine. She lived a life of service to others. She joined medical missions to rural Vietnam through Hand-In-Hand Share Missions of Dallas, Texas. She loved serving our veterans, their families, and her community.

Trang loved her large extended family, drawing friends from around the country and the world.

Nothing made her happier than gathering outdoors, enjoying nature, eating good food, and listening to the voices of her loved ones.

Trang is survived by her beloved son, Nathan LaVoy; devoted husband, Eric LaVoy; her parents, Hieu Vo and Dong Tran; her siblings, Demet (Dao Nguyen) Dong, Hai (Lan Pham) Vo, Long (Nhi Tran) Vo, Oanh Kim (Kievis) Acosta and Hung (Renee Watson) Vo; her American parents and sister; Mark Glueck, Kady Burke and Julia Glueck; her steadfast best friend; Karin French, her sister-in-law; Niki (Curtis MacDuff) LaVoy. She was preceded in death by her brother, Hùng Vo. She was a wonderful Cô Nam to her 10 nieces and nephews: Danh, Bao, Ella, Duy, Emma, Dustin, Caitlin, Trieu, Isaac, Norah, and many children throughout the world.
