“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Vickie, however, I became friends with her husband, Jim Zachary, at UTHealth East Texas, where Jim volunteers on Thursday & Friday. Jim, you and I fight every week and I've missed our love/hate banter since you've been gone. I understand completely why you had to step away however, I sincerely hope you will return and grace us with your humor, laughter and quick-wit. I am so sorry for this loss of life and I hope you know that we, here at UTHealth, are here for you if you need us. I'm praying for you and I'm sending you hugs from a distance. Your friend, Veronica Pinke (UTHealth East Texas)

“ In loving memory of Vickie Jean Holder Zachary, She was one of my closest friends when we were young. I remember having sleepovers at her house and sharing so much fun and laughter. We were in drill team together in our early teens. In recent years, we exchanged Christmas cards and included a recipe each year. I wish I could share the depth of my condolences. Jim and her family & friends are in my thoughts and prayers. Vickie was dearly loved and is so sadly missed. God bless you all.
