

Wardine Moore

October 19, 1917 - April 3, 2011

Memorial services for Wardine Clearman Moore, 93, of Tyler will be held on Saturday, April 9, 2011 at 11:00 AM at First United Methodist Church in Seminole with Rev. Marvin Gregory officiating. A private burial will be held in the Gaines County Cemetery under the direction of Ratliff Funeral Home in Seminole. Arrangements are under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home in Tyler. Mrs. Moore passed away on April 3, 2011 in Tyler. She was born October 19, 1917 in Kokomo, Eastland County, Texas. She was raised by her mother, Mary Ellen, after her father, Ward Clearman, died of pneumonia prior to her birth. She graduated from Texas Technological College in Lubbock and taught school in Patricia, Dawson County, Texas, where she met her husband, Burton Ross Moore. After his service in WWII, they moved to Seminole, Texas, where they raised their twin sons, Robert and Richard. Her love for her family was paramount to everything in her life and her grandchildren were just thatGRAND! In addition to her parents, Mrs. Moore was preceded in death by her husband, Ross Moore; son, Robert Moore; two sisters, Frankie Freeman and Other Creager; and three brothers, Hugh Lee, J.C. and Blanton Clearman. She is survived by a loving family including a son, Richard L. Moore and wife, Pamela Walters, of Tyler; daughter-in-law, Debbie Moore of Lubbock; grandchildren, Rodney Moore, Nathan Moore, Kelsey Moore, Jason Moore and Jennifer Scott; and seven grandchildren. Memorials in honor of Wardine Moore may be made to the First United Methodist Church of Seminole, PO Box 1268, Seminole, TX 79360.
