“ I don't remember a time in my life that did not hold the memory of Warren and Ila Mae as great friends to my sweet parents, Burries and Marie Barnes. Daddy and Warren shared so many years as friends. And after the loss of my daddy, Warren remained a close friend to my mom and still called and visited with her until her passing 3 years ago. Afterward, I would call him on occasion to check on him and his health and his family. He always took a moment on every visit to remind me how much he loved my parents and how much he missed them.

Warren was a very kind and caring man. We are all saddened to hear of his passing. However, we believe he is now reunited with his loving wife and his friends once again. That is a blessing, and we find comfort in knowing that. Rest well dear friend.
