“ Our cousin, Winnie McManus, just called. She told us a "funny". Several years ago, Gene sent Winnie a card with a cute, fluffy, white lamb on the front. Inside the message was: YOU ARE NOT FAT, JUST FLUFFY!

Winnie said it gave her many laughs.

We will not make the visitation, but plan to get thee early on Wednesday morning. John Cockerham is going with us.

We miss him so much!

“ Dear Aunt Bernice, Bobbi, Michael, Pam, and Jeanie, and other family members.....

My heart's thoughts and prayers are with each of you and your families during this time of transition and change, May your faith and knowing The Lord Jesus Christ has His plan for all of us, make this somewhat more bearable~!

*My Uncle Gene was one that took a chance and opened his heart, mind, and soul to me; with love and acceptance that no other had ever done...I found an enormous part of myself once finding Him; and then His sharing with me.... stories, events, family pictures, trips to meet family members, trips to the cemeteries to learn history, and to understand many questions I had been asking for years~! I will always treasure the bond Uncle Gene had with his family and the love for each of you, that was full of so much love and pride~! My Universe was brightened by Uncle Gene in so many way this last 21 years...I think God for sharing Him with me, and am proud to have known this special man of character, humor and "great taste" from his "garden of memories" shared~! God's Blessings and my love to each of you, with BIG HUGS~!

“ My Dear Bernice, I want to thank you for sharing such a wonderful person with me and all of our co-workers in the insurance business. I'll never forget Gene telling me about having found a wadded up insurance brochure with our phone number and address on it, and he followed up and came to Austin to get a job with this company that had TAN as one of their clients. I'm so glad he followed up. We must ALL remember how fragile and short this life really is. Regardless of how much we take our friendships for granted, we must stay in touch with those who mean so much to us. My dear friend Gene was one of those that meant that much to me.
