“ I did not know Bill very long, but I was always impressed with his outgoing personality, his leadership in taking charge when the occasion called for it, and his sense of humor. I met him through East Texas Writers Guild and loved listening to him read or just talk, using the deep theatrical voice he was gifted with. God had other plans for Bill, and I can only rejoice in knowing he is completely happy now in the home God has given him for all eternity. Bill will be missed, not only by the Guild members, but by everyone who knew him. Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.
