“ Uncle Bill was an amazing man. I have so many great memories of holidays with him. I know that he had a wonderful life and an incredibly loving wife and children. I wish I could have been there to say goodbye, but I know that he is in a better place and is looking down smiling at everyone right now. Take comfort in knowing that he is with God and has found his peace. I love you!

“ Dear Betty and Paul,
We are saddened today to read in the Gazette of your Dad's death. However, he was a super gentleman and worker in his church and community for the Lord. We are sorry we shall not be able to attend the service, but we shall be voicing a prayer for Mrs. Lois and all of you. I hope she is doing well. God's blessings upon you at this time.
Love! Robby and Betty Bates
